

Hazel R. Gullickson, 89

Hazel R. Gullickson, 89, Groton, died Wednesday, Oct. 20, 1999 at Beverly Healthcare Center, Groton.

Her funeral was Saturday, Oct. 23, 1999, at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Groton, with the Rev. Stephen Swenson officiating. Burial was in Union Cemetery, Groton, with Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel, Groton, in charge of arrangements.

Hazel Rix was born November 12, 1909 to Roy and Delia (Jerman) Rix, Groton. She attended school in Groton and graduated from Groton High School in 1927. Following graduation she attended Northern State Teachers College, Aberdeen.

She married Luther Gullickson, September 23, 1937 in Van Nuys, Calif. They made their home in California for five years and later moved to Denver, Colo. Eventually, they moved to Langford, where they farmed until their retirement. Hazel taught school for 25 years in the Langford and Pierpont areas. Following retirement, the Gullicksons moved to Aberdeen, where they lived for six years. Luther passed away November 18, 1985. Hazel continued to make her home in Aberdeen, until she became a resident of Beverly Healthcare Center in Groton.

She was a member of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Groton, and also belonged to the Retired Teachers Association, Royal Neighbors, and Study Club. She was active in several church circles. She enjoyed reading, especially current events.

She is survived by two daughters, Gail Schinkel, Groton, and Barbara (Roger) Tweet, Kenneth, Minn.; eight grandchildren, Paul Tweet, Mark Tweet, Tonya Tweet, Corey Schinkel, Carter Schinkel, Teal Schinkel, Tara (Sean) Patterson and Tena (Jade) Weig; one great grandchild, Lane Weig.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, and infant twin sisters.

Casketbearers were Art Zoellner, Gerald Rix, Jerry Johnson, Roger Tweet, Harlan Bistodeau and Gus Dinga.

Organist was Kathy Knudsen, and soloists were Bill Duncan and Pam Hansen. There was congregational singing.

