

July 13, 2004

Obit: Mary Kay Haas

- Mary Kay Haas, 37, of Westport, died Saturday, July 10, 2004 from injuries she received in an automobile accident north of Aberdeen.
- Mass of Christian Burial will be 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, July 14, at St. Augustine Catholic Church in Bowdle, SD with Father John Rader and Father Gregory Tschakert Co-celebrants. Burial will follow at the Eureka City Cemetery under the direction of Miller Funeral Home of Bowdle.
- Funeral home visitation will be from 12:00-5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, July 13, 2004. A Liturgical Wake Service and Rosary will be held at the church at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday evening with Father JP Morgan officiating.

- Mary Kay Geier was born July 18, 1966, at Hoven, SD, to James and Elaine (Engelhart) Geier. She attended school at Bowdle, graduating in 1984. She then attended St. Mary's College in Bismarck for one year and then transferred to Northern State University.
- She married Wesley E. Haas on December 27, 1986 at Bowdle. They moved to Eureka, where Mary worked for Northwest G. F. Mutual Insurance Company. They then moved to Fridley, MN, where they managed an apartment complex for about two years. They moved to Gillette, WY, where she worked at T.C.I. Communications for about seven years, until 1997 when they moved to Westport. She was employed at Plains Commerce Bank at the time of her death.
- She was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, the Altar Society at the church and the Frederick High School Athletic Booster Club. She liked to shop with her sister, do interior decorating and attend the activities of her children. She was noted as being a good listener. She was a very loving wife and mother to her children.
- She will be greatly missed by her husband; her three children, Brent, Brandon and Brooke, all at home; her parents of Bowdle; her two brothers, Michael Geier and James (Lisa) Geier, Jr. of Bowdle, and her sister Michelle (Jeff) Simmons of Eureka.
- She was preceded in death by her paternal and maternal grandparents.
- Casket bearers will be Wayne Haas, Willie Haas, John Haas, James Sayler, Dave Hardegger and Lee Goetz.
- Honorary casket bearers will be her co-workers at Plains Commerce Bank and Friends of the Community.