

August 31, 1961

Ila M. Hollenbeck

Services for Mrs. Ila M. Hollenbeck, 65 of 204 5th Ave. S. E., Aberdeen, was held at 2:00 p. m., Friday, at the First Methodist church, Aberdeen, with Rev. J. Harley Thompson officiating. Burial was in the Sunset Memorial Gardens.

Mrs. Hollenbeck was born Nov. 18, 1895, at Columbia City, Ohio. She was married to Arthur Hollenbeck at Redfield in May, 1914. They lived at Northville until 1930, when they moved to Stratford. They moved to Groton in 1933 and to Aberdeen in 1954.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. George (Doris) Manning, Hialeah, Fla.; Mrs. Howard (Geneva) Markley, Aberdeen, and Mrs. Evelyn LaCore, Dayton, Ohio; one sister, Mrs. Lauella Brady, Minneapolis, and one brother, John Dickey, Mellette. Eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren also survive.

The Krueger - Johnson Mortuary of Aberdeen, were in charge of arrangements.

The following from Groton attended funeral services: Messrs. and Mesdames Harvey Dorfschmidt, Arden Rix, Robert Rix and Gerald Donovan and Barbara. The four men were among the pallbearers. Mrs. William Koehler also attended the rites.

Mrs. Hollenbeck left friends in Groton, who extend sympathy to the survivors.