

MRS. CAROLINE KNOLL HOLLIS

2-27-30

Mrs. Caroline Knoll Hollis died in on Aberdeen hospital Friday evening, following an operation. Her death, it is said, was due to the shock following the ordeal and which her weakened condition was unable to forego. She was brought to Groton and the funeral, conducted by Rev. F. E. Wilke, held from St. John's Lutheran church, with interment in Groton cemetery in charge of H. Paetznick.

Mrs. Hollis was born in Chebanse, Ill., May 20, 1898, where she lived until the age of eight with her parents, when they moved to Groton. She had been a resident of Groton up until the time of her death.

As survivors she leaves her mother, two daughters, Grace and Maxine, two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Schaller, of Groton, and Mrs. William Heller, of Iowa; five brothers, Chris. of Andover, John of Pierpont, Jake, William and Woodrow of Groton, besides a host of relatives and friends.

Caroline, we miss thee from thy home,

Dear Caroline, we miss thee from thy place.

A shadow o'er our lives is cast.

We miss the sunshine of thy face.

We miss the kind and willing hands,
That worked with earnest care.

Our home is dark without thee, Caroline.

We miss thee everywhere.
