Theresa A
Mrs. Honey

Services for Mrs. Floyd (Theresa) Honey, 82, former Putney Township resident, were held at 2 p.m. Thursday, April 19, at the Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel.

She died April 16 at a Rapid City rest home.

The Rev. Larry Moore officiated and burial was in the Groton Union Cemetery.

Music was provided by Miss Diane Henley who sang "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go," and "Abide With Me." She was accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Alberts.

Pallbearers were Jack Gilchrist, Dale Hosley, Earl Ruden, Leslie Honey, Jack Mahan and Don Henley.

Mrs. Honey was born April 30, 1890, in Rice Lake, Wis., and was married Sept. 19, 1912, in Aberdeen. They lived in the Putney area until 1942 when they moved to Long Beach, Calif., returning to Groton four years later. Her husband died in January 1949, and since that time she has lived near her sons in California and most recently in Rapid City.

Survivors include two sons, Alan of El Cajon, Calif., and James of Tujunga, Calif.; one daughter, Mrs. Lester (Lolian) Rehfeld, Rapid City; and ten grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband and one son.
