MRS ALBERT HORNEMAN
DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Mrs. Albert Horneman, living southwest of Groton, passed away Tuesday after a short illness of only two weeks. Survivors are her husband and children, her mother, Mrs. Anna Pagel and two brothers and four sisters. Mr. Horneman is bed-ridden, having suffered a broken hip some time ago.

She was born at Stratford, June 16, 1882, and was married January 9, 1918, in Aberdeen.

The funeral will be held some time Friday from the First English Lutheran church, with Rev. Melford S. Knutson officiating and the remains will be laid to rest in East Rondell cemetery.
