Pearl A. Hovrud, 78, 210 North Arch, Aberdeen, died Friday, March 16, 1990 at Aberdeen Living Center.

The funeral has been set for 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, March 21, at Miller-Huebl Funeral Home with the Rev. Rob Kemppainen officiating. Burial will be at Sunset Memorial Gardens.

The organist for the service will be Arliss Alberts and the soloist will be David Sultz. The casketbearers are her nephews, Ronald Adler, Terry Herron, Steve Herron, Monte Kolbo, Gary Webb and Ray Evans. All of her friends will be considered honorary pallbearers.

Pearl A. Herron, the daughter of Ray and Alma Schlick Herron, was born at Groton, December 8, 1911, and she attended school in that area. She worked on the family farm, until the 1940's when she moved to Aberdeen and worked at the S & L

Store. She was married to Engvald Hovrud at Rapid City, July 2, 1948, and they lived in Aberdeen. Later, she was employed at the Village Bowl. In the late 1960's, she worked as a sales clerk at Bostwicks until 1970, when she was employed at the Virginia Cafe until she retired in 1973. She has continued to reside in Aberdeen.

She was a member of Bethlehem Lutheran Church.

She is survived by her husband, Engvald (Eng) Hovrud, Aberdeen; one son, Jim R. Hovrud, Aberdeen; one brother, LeRoy (Bud) Herron, Groton; two sisters, Mrs. Gladys Adler, Groton, and Mrs. Juel (Eunice) Kolbo, Aberdeen; and one granddaughter.

She was preceded in death by her parents, one stepson, one brother and one sister.
