

March 18, 1965

Charles H. Jensen

Funeral services were held for Charles Herman Jensen, Prosser, Wash., on Friday, Feb. 26 at 2:00 p. m., at the Messiah Lutheran Church at Prosser with Rev. Martin Lankow officiating.

Duane Landin, soloist, sang two hymns, "Abide With Me," and "What A Friend We Have in Jesus," accompanied by Mrs. Wilfred Wascher.

Pall bearers were Calvin Voss, Alex Lysiak, Joe Gaviorno, Ed McMillen, Paul Eickman and Victor Breitenfeldt.

Burial was in the East Prosser Cemetery.

Charles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jensen was born near Stratford on Sept. 18, 1905. He was married to Alice Roettele on March 13, 1926 at Timber Lake. To this union one son, was born. In 1937 the family moved to Prosser, where he worked as a mechanic. He passed away on Feb. 22nd while at work.

He was preceded in death by his father and one sister.

Survivors include his wife; and son, Delbert, Prosser; mother, Mrs. Chris Jensen, Croton; three brothers, Ervin, Ellensburg, Wash., Milton, Stratford and Dallas, Bath; also three grandchildren.