

September 5, 1940

Nels Johnson Dies After Long Illness

Nels Johnson, veteran machine salesman, widely known among farmers in this community, died at his Aberdeen home early last Sunday. He had been ill for several months. He was 71 at the time of his death. He is survived by his wife and one sister, Mrs. Elna Lofgren, in Sweden. Funeral rites were held Thursday at Aberdeen and interment was in Riverside cemetery there.