

July 27, 1906

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Klipstein arrived Wednesday evening from their home at Menoken, N. D. Their little six year old son fell from a wagon and the wheels passed over his body, causing internal injuries from which he died.

The body of the little fellow was brought here for interment and funeral services were held Thursday.

A host of friends deeply sympathize with the stricken family in their great affliction.