

November 5, 1959

Mrs. Rose Knickrehm

Services for Rose M. Knickrehm, 73, who died early Sunday morning, Oct. 25, 1959, at her home in Groton, were held Wednesday in the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Knickrehm was born Rose Mary Sunday, February 12, 1886, in Peotone, Ill. She married Fred T. Knickrehm in Peotone in 1908. She was a member of the Presbyterian church of Groton and a resident of the Verdon and Groton areas since 1910.

She is survived by one son, Robert, Verdon; one daughter, Mrs. Marvin Rossow, Stratford; one brother, Leo F. Thoms, Topeka, Kans.; one sister, Mrs. John Kahn, Peotone, Ill., and by six grandchildren, Gordon, Dennis and Margaret Rossow, and Ann, Roberta and Carol Knickrehm.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, two sisters and one brother.

The Rev. Robert Carey conducted the services, Soloist was Hurst Williams, Conde, accompanied by Mrs. Joe Williams. Burial was in the Union Cemetery in Groton. Paetznick Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were Clayton Gibbs, Wilford Dresbach, Cyril Evans, Earl Lutz, Lynn Erdmann and Orville Ott.

Those attending the funeral from away were: Leo Thoms, Topeka, Kans.; Adolph Knickrehm and daughter, Mrs. Loree Kaack of Peotone, Ill.; Mrs. Eugene Boucher, Borbonnais, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Knickrehm, Grant Park, Ill.; Wm. Kiecksie, Mrs. Walter Sundermeyer and Janet and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schroeder and Donald, all of Ward, S. D.; Gordon Rossow of Minneapolis, Minn., and Ann Knickrehm of Huron.