Four-Year-Old Girl of Chris. Knoll Dies

Margaret Ellis, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Knoll, died Saturday from the effects of pneumonia, and was buried Tuesday in the Groton cemetery.

The little child was a lovable miss and will be greatly missed from the household in which she was such a source of joy and comfort.

The funeral services were conducted by an Andover minister and in charge of H. Paetznick, of this city.
