

September 24, 1908

MRS. C. W. KRANHOLD

At a little after six o'clock Monday evening, and after weeks of intense suffering with cancer of the stomach, Mrs. C. W. Kranhold closed her eyes forever on the scenes of earth.

She was a native of Hustisford, Wis., and was fifty-seven years of age. Coming to Dakota Territory with her family twenty-six years ago, she knew all the toil and care as well as the hopeful energy which go with making a home and rearing a family in a new country. Leaving the farm a few years ago, the family has since made a home in Groton, and insofar as failing health would permit, the departed enjoyed the well earned rest after a life of unusual activity.

When the dread disease developed, with all the intense pain which goes with it, a world of sympathy was felt for the stricken woman by the old-time neighbors and friends.

In addition to a wide circle of friends, she is mourned by husband, two sons and two daughters.

Funeral services will occur tomorrow at 2:00 at the home.