

November 1, 2009

The Life of Cynthia Krueger

- The funeral for Cynthia Ann Krueger, 51, of Groton will be held Tuesday, Nov. 3, 2009, at 10 a.m. at the United Methodist Church, Groton. The Rev. Bill Duncan will officiate. Burial will follow in Sunset Memorial Gardens, Aberdeen.
- Visitation will be held at the United Methodist Church from on Monday, 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. and will continue one hour prior to the service at the church on Tuesday.
- Cindy died October 28th at Sanford Medical Center in Sioux Falls after a two year battle with cancer.
- Cynthia Ann was born on July 28, 1958 to Jim and Vera (Dumler) Gregson in Borger, Texas. When she was in junior high, her family moved to Bartlesville, Oklahoma, where she graduated from Sooner High School in 1976. Cindy attended college at Oklahoma State University and then Oklahoma Wesleyan University. It was at OWU that she met Scott Krueger. Cindy and Scott were united in marriage on August 24, 1979 in Bartlesville. They were blessed with four children. The family lived on a farm south of Groton until 1996 when they moved to their present home in Groton. They attended the Westside Wesleyan Church in Bristol, where Cindy taught Sunday School and Bible School before they transferred to the Groton CM&A Church.

- Cindy's greatest joy was being a full-time mother. She enjoyed working with flowers, loved animals and had a great talent for decorating. Cindy had a warm and generous personality and a quick sense of humor. She had an ability to make friends with anyone.
- Celebrating her life through memories is her husband, Scott, two daughters, Mandilyn and her husband Jonathan Flieds and their soon-to-be-born child of Aberdeen; Whitney and her fiancé Ryan Brunner of Brookings; two sons, Gavin of Brookings; and Dylan of Groton. Cindy is also survived by her brothers, Bradley (Diane) Gregson of Lubbock, Texas, Barry (Kelly) Gregson of Overland Park, Kansas and Kurt (Brenda) Gregson of Lee's Summit, Missouri, her parents-in-law, Lyle & Lois Krueger of Conde, her sister-in-laws, Dawn (Tim) Purcell of Charles City, Iowa, Marla (John) Beineke of Jonesboro, Arkansas, Sara (Mark) Moore of Ottawa, Kansas, several nieces and nephews and many friends.
- Preceding her in death were her parents and grandparents.
- Casketbearers will be Tom Cutler, John Erickson, Mark Moore, Rodney Tobin, Dale Washnok and Loren Golden.

Cynthia Ann Krueger, 51

Cynthia Ann Krueger, 51, Groton, died Wednesday, Oct. 28, 2009 at Sanford Medical Center, Sioux Falls, after a two-year battle with cancer.

Her funeral was Tuesday, Nov. 3, 2009 at the United Methodist Church, Groton, with the Rev. Bill Duncan officiating. Burial followed in Sunset Memorial Gardens, Aberdeen, with Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel, Groton, in charge of arrangements.

Cynthia Ann was born July 28, 1958 to Jim and Vera (Dumler) Gregson in Borger, Texas. When she was in junior high, her family moved to Bartlesville, Okla., where she graduated from Sooner High School in 1976. Cindy attended college at Oklahoma State University and then Oklahoma Wesleyan University. It was at OWU that she met Scott Krueger.

Cindy and Scott were united in marriage August 24, 1979 in Bartlesville. They were blessed with four children. The family lived on a farm south of Groton, until 1996, when they moved to their present home in Groton. They attended the Westside Wesleyan Church, Bristol, where Cindy taught Sunday School and Bible School, before they transferred to the Groton CM&A Church.

Cindy's greatest joy was being a full-time mother. She enjoyed working with flowers, loved animals, and had a great talent for decorating. Cindy had a warm and generous personality and a quick sense of humor. She had an ability to make friends with anyone.

Celebrating her life through memories are her husband, Scott; two daughters, Mandilyn (Jonathan) Flihs and their soon-to-be-born child, Aberdeen; Whitney and her fiancé, Ryan Brunner, Brookings; two sons, Gavin, Brookings, and Dylan, Groton; three brothers, Bradley (Diane) Gregson, Lubbock, Texas; Barry (Kelly) Gregson, Overland Park, Kan., and Kurt (Brenda) Gregson, Lee's Summit, Mo.; her parents-in-law, Lyle and Lois Krueger, Conde; three sister-in-laws, Dawn (Tim) Purcell, Charles City, Iowa; Marla (John) Beineke, Jonesboro, Ark., and Sara (Mark) Moore, Ottawa, Kan.; several nieces and nephews, and many friends.

Preceding her in death were her parents and grandparents.

Casketbearers were Tom Cutler, John Erickson, Mark Moore, Rodney Tobin, Dale Washnok and Loren Golden.

