

Local Resident's Father Dies in Farm Home Fire

Carl Lange, 67, father of Arthur Lange of this city, lost his life last Tuesday when his farm home near Lamberton, Minn., was destroyed by fire in a midnight blaze.

Reuben Lange, 26, a son and James Lange, 18, a nephew, narrowly escaped in their night clothing and bare-footed. They were sleeping in an upstairs bedroom.

Flames spread so rapidly that all efforts to save Mr. Lange were futile. He was sleeping in a bedroom near the room in which an explosion occurred from an oil-burner stove.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lange attended services held Friday at St. John's Lutheran church in Waterbury township, near Lamberton, Minn.
