

April 15, 1987

Mae Larson

Funeral services for Mae Larson, 89, Columbia were held Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Columbia Congregational Church. The Revs. Jack Erickson and Craig Grams officiated.

She died Saturday, April 11, 1987 at Bethesda Home of Aberdeen.

Burial was in Sunset Memorial Gardens at Aberdeen.

Mae Nilsson was born February 12, 1898 at Colon, Neb., to Nils and Emma (Christenson) Nilsson. She lived in the Columbia and Bath areas most of her life.

She married Carl Larson March 6, 1919 in Aberdeen. She was a member of the Columbia Congregational Church, the UCC Women's Fellowship and the Columbia Senior Citizens.

Survivors include two sons, Alfred and Melvin, both of Columbia; daughter, Mrs. Richard (Gertrude) Ruden, Groton; brothers, Elmer, Aberdeen; Ernest, Warner; Herman, Groton; Harold, Sun City, Ariz., and Carl, Bath; sister, Mrs. Anne Oster, Lodi, Calif.; 12 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband and two brothers.

Casketbearers were Dan Larson, Todd Larson, Clayton Larson, Ray Larson, Carson Larson and Berle Meyers. Ushers were Dick Traphagen and Jan Gilchrist. The organist was Vineta Milbrandt and soloist, Gordon Wiedeman.