Last Rites Held Thursday For Mrs. Carl Lundman

The community was saddened last week to learn that Mrs. Carl Lundman passed away at an Aberdeen hospital on Monday evening, March 15th, at 9:30 o'clock. Mrs. Lundman had been in failing health for some time. Everything that kind and loving hands could do was done, but she was too weak to overcome her illness and passed quietly away into that Great Beyond from which no mortal ever wishes to return.

Ruth Matilda Lagerborg was born in Chicago, Ill., August 31st, 1901. She was educated in the schools of Chicago and at an early age became a faithful member of her church, being ever loyal to its teachings.

She was married to Carl Lundman on December 15, 1925. To this union was born one daughter, Doris. The family home was made on a farm in the Groton community.

Mrs. Lundman was a kind and loving wife and mother, a good friend and neighbor, and a faithful member of her church, giving ever of her time to the care of her home and family, as long as her health permitted her to do so. She will be greatly missed by her family, as well as by all who knew her.

Funeral services were held from the Methodist church on Thursday afternoon, March 18th, at 2:00 o'clock, with the Rev. L. C. Benson officiating. Rev. Benson read the beautiful words of the 23rd Psalm and brought a message of comfort and hope to the grieving relatives. Misses Myrtle and Margaret Blader sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," with Mrs. Robert Wegner accompanist. Pallbearers were Wm. J. Paetznick, Guy Herron, Jack Johnson, Kenneth Likness, Wm. Heitman and Sven E. Windh. Interment was in Groton Union Cemetery.

Mrs. Lundman is survived by her grief-stricken husband and daughter, Doris; three sisters, Mrs. Sigurd B. Hammer (Beda), and Mrs. Garret Plantinga (Florence) of Chicago; Mrs. Alfred Johnson (Pearl) of Huron, and one brother, Carl Lagerborg of Homewood, Ill.

Out-of-town relatives here for the funeral were Mrs. Garret Plantinga and son, Clifford, of Chicago; Mr. Carl Lagerborg of Homewood; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson of Huron; Mrs. Otto Besch of Fairfax, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Samuelson of Stratford, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Funk, Jr., of Minneapolis, Minn.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days,
Sincere and true in her heart and mind,
A beautiful memory she left behind.
