MARTEN BABY DIES

John Ward Marten was born to his happy parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Marten on Hallowe'en at Peabody hospital, Webster, but his stay wasn't long or it was the will of the Lord that he depart on Armistice Day, twelve days later.

The saddened parents, with the grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Funk, laid the loved one to rest in the family lot in Groton Union cemetery on Sunday afternoon.

Services were held at Webster where the little funeral home was filled with sympathizing friends. Services were conducted by the Reverend Conrad Floren of the German Lutheran church of Webster. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Marten and two sons and their wives were in attendance from Canova, S. D.
