

Obit: Tim McFarlane

- WILMOT-Tim McFarlane. 40, Wilmot, died at his home Wednesday, Oct. 29, 2003. His funeral was held November 1 at the First Presbyterian Church in Wilmot with Rev. DeVern Schwenn officiating. Corrine Johnson, organist and vocalist, presented music.
- Burial was in the Wilmot Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers were the members of the Wilmot fire Department and Bill Argo and Ray Christensen. Active pallbearers were Harlan Hanson, Leon DeGreef, Dale Klemm, Kent Miller, Wes Herniman and Andrew Davies.
- The Mundwiler Funeral Home of Milbank was in charge of the arrangements.
- Timothy Joseph McFarlane was born May 18, 1963, at Milbank, the son of Arnold and Muriel (Kirkup) McFarlane. He attended school at Wilmot.
- He married Rhonda Mae Johnson May 9, 1987, in St. John's Lutheran Church Wheaton, MN.
- He was a life-long resident of Wilmot. He was employed at the Farmer's Co-op Elevator in Wilmot. He was a member of the Wilmot Fire Department and a member of the First Presbyterian Church. He enjoyed deer hunting, camping and snowmobiling with his family and friends. He worked on old tractors. With his outgoing personality, he always had time to visit, or a comment to make, with anyone who crossed his path. He took great pride and delight in and enjoyed spending time with his two little girls.
- Survivors include his wife, Rhonda of Wilmot; two daughters, Lindsey Mae and Tessa Jo, both of Wilmot; his father, Arnold McFarlane of Wilmot; two brothers, Alan McFarlane (and Anita Homan) of Wilmot and Dana (and his wife Monica) McFarlane of Watertown; and one sister Teresa (and her husband Denny) Davies of Groton.
