Charlotte E. Newman

Charlotte E. Newman, 78, passed away Wednesday, Jan. 21, 1953, at 5:30 p. m., in the Good Samaritan Home, Aberdeen. She had been confined for some time in a hospital and rest home following a fall in which she received a fractured hip.

Miss Newman was born on April 8, 1874, at Portland, Mich., to Franklin and Martha Lodema Newman. She came to Groton with her parents when a small girl, returning to Michigan in 1899, where she stayed until 1904. She then came back to later make her home in Aberdeen.

Although Miss Newman had not made her home in Groton for the past years, there are many who remember the deceased well and extend sincerest sympathy to the family in the loss of their loved one.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2:30 p. m., in the Paetznick Funeral Home, with the Rev. James A. Rice officiating. Burial was in Groton cemetery. Pall bearers were: E. J. Meythaler, Wm. Koehler, John Rohwer, Harry Samuel, Joe Abeln and Raymond Wing.

She leaves to mourn her passing one brother, B. C. Newman, Kidder, S. D.; two sisters, Mrs. Vera Dixon, Britton, S. D., and Mrs. Laura Alderman, Edmonton, Canada, and a niece, Mrs. George Koehler of this vicinity, besides a number of other relatives. She was preceded in death by her parents and a brother, Roy, of Chicago, Ill.
