

February 18, 1971

Mrs. Boyd Nietert

Services for Mrs. Boyd (Anna) Nietert, 72, of Claremont, were held Saturday, Feb. 13 at 2 p.m. at the United Methodist Church in Claremont. Rev. Preston Brown officiated. Burial was in the Huffton cemetery.

Mrs. Nietert died Feb. 10 at the Dakota Midland Hospital in Aberdeen.

Music was provided by Rodney Barnes, soloist, who sang "Abide With Me," and the church choir singing "How Great Thou Art," accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Pierson, organist.

Honorary pallbearers were George Andrews, Percy Benedict, Homer Cutler, Howard Cutler, Robert Fritsche, Bert Gibbs, Virgil Odland and Lloyd Sanderson. Active pallbearers were Keith Cutler, William Gustafson, Don Hinrichs, Wilfred Landwehr, Robert Miller and Emery Stohr.

Mrs. Nietert was born Dec. 23, 1898, in Groton, and was married Jan. 16, 1923 in Aberdeen.

Survivors include her husband, one son, Duane; and one daughter, Mrs. Norman (Marjorie) Hewitt, all of Claremont; nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. Edith Daniels and Mrs. Harry (Mae) Gullickson, both of Britton.

She was preceded in death by one brother, three sisters and one daughter.

The Paetznick Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrangements.