

Inez Olson

Inez Olson, 76, 1324 15th Ave. S. E., Aberdeen, and formerly of Groton and Claremont, died at the Bethesda Nursing home on Friday, Jan. 22, 1988.

The funeral was held Monday, Jan. 25 at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Groton, with the Rev. F. Philip Strain officiating. Burial was in the Britton Cemetery under the direction of Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel.

Inez Bilben was born December 22, 1911 at Havana, N.D., to Simon and Ingeborg Bilben. On November 28, 1930 she married Albin Lindquist at Langford. They farmed near Langford following their marriage. On September 26, 1951, she married Glen Olson at Langford. They farmed near Claremont until 1971 when they moved to Groton. He died in 1981. In September of 1987, she moved to the Bethesda Nursing Home Apartments in Aberdeen.

1-27-88

She was a member of Augustana Lutheran Church, rural Claremont and the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Groton and an associate member of Victory Lutheran Church, Mesa, Ariz; the ELCW, circle at church, Groton Senior Citizens, Emmanuel Lutheran Church Kitchen Band, the Rebekah Lodge in Groton, the A.B.C. Club and the Current Events Club. She was a volunteer at Colonial Manor, Groton.

Casketbearers were Larry Cole, Rick Cole, Terry Cole, David Elsen, Danny Olson and Mark Schaunaman.

The organist was Marlyce Cassels. David Sueltz, soloist, sang, "Nearer My God To Thee" and "Beyond The Sunset". The congregation sang "Praise To The Lord" and "Rock Of Ages". Homer Mydland was usher.

Survivors include one step-son, Darl Olson, Claremont; two step-daughters, Mrs. John (Ilene) Knecht, Houghton and Mrs. Doug (Bonnie) Cole, Langford; four brothers, John Bilben, Moorhead, Minn.; George Bilben, Sioux Falls; Alvin Bilben, Rosholt and Junior, Chicago, Ill.; three sisters, Mrs. Selma Halvenicka, Barnsville, Minn.; Mrs. Alga Triplett, Barnsville, Minn.; Mrs. Ole (Alice) Dalberg, Claire City; 10 step-grandchildren; 19 step-great-grandchildren; and one foster grandchild.

She was preceded in death by her parents, both husbands, one son, Wayland Lindquist, and one brother.