

February 16, 1950

Former Groton Resident Dies Recently In California

Clarence J. Ottum, 54, for many years a resident of Groton and Aberdeen, died recently in San Gabriel, Calif., according to word received by friends here.

Survivors are his mother, Mrs. W. S. Streeter; a sister, Mrs. W. F. Martyn, and a brother, Ernest J. Ottum, all of Aberdeen.

Mr. Ottum lived in California for the past 12 years. While in Aberdeen he was employed by the International Harvester Co. He was in the real estate business in San Gabriel and was a veteran of World War I.

Funeral services were held in California.