

August 12, 1954

Alice Pasch

Mrs. Alice C. Pasch, 74, 2815 Harrison Blvd., at Ogden, Utah, passed away in St. Benedict's Hospital after an extended illness.

Mrs. Pasch was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church of Ogden and a member of the Lutheran Woman's Missionary League. While a resident of Beverly Hills, Calif., she was a member of the Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran church.

She was born June 11, 1880, at Goodwin, S. D., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Draeger. When she was a girl the family moved to Groton, where she resided until 1935. At that time she moved to Beverly Hills. In October, 1953, she moved to Ogden to reside with a son, Archie F. Pasch.

On June 10, 1902, she was married to Otto F. Pasch in Groton. They were later divorced.

Surviving are her former husband of Ogden; two sons and one daughter, Archie F. Pasch, Ogden; Walter Pasch, Aberdeen; Mrs. Paul (Ruby) Boyd, San Bernardino, Calif.; four grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, two brothers, Judge Henry H. Draeger, Beverly Hills, and Charles A. Draeger, Aberdeen.

Funeral services were conducted in Lindquist and Sons Colonial Funeral Chapel at Ogden. Rev. Arnold J. Abel of the St. Paul's Lutheran church officiated.

The only grandson of the deceased, Charles Pasch, in the navy at Miramar, San Diego, Calif., attended the services also other grandchildren, Carol Jean Pasch, Sacramento, Calif., and Mrs. David (Donna Jane) Stephens and Mrs. Boyd* (Ethel Mae) Degen, Ogden.