

January 12, 1967

Elmer O. Pigors

Services for Elmer O. Pigors, 46, were held at 2 p. m., Friday, Jan. 6, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Ferney.

Mr. Pigors passed away on Tuesday at St. Luke's Hospital in Aberdeen.

The Rev. H. A. Kriefall officiated and burial was in the Ferney cemetery.

Music was provided by the congregation singing one hymn and a duet number by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sueltz accompanied by Mrs. Dallas Sombke, organist.

Pall bearers were Arthur Pigors, Herman Pigors, Otho Schaller, Marvin Harry, George Schmidt and Ralph Peterson.

Mr. Pigors was born Jan. 31, 1920, at Ferney. He was married to Jeanette Swenson of Bristol on Feb. 7, 1942 at Milbank and had lived and farmed in the Ferney and Groton areas all his life.

Survivors include his widow; three sons, Dennis, Richard and Cory, and one daughter, Diane, all of Groton; two brothers, Ewald, Groton; and Herbert, Ferney; one sister, Mrs. Paul O. Krueger, Groton; and his mother, Mrs. Ida Pigors, Groton.

He was preceded in death by his father, one daughter, one sister and three brothers.

The Ackerson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.