

July 1, 1971

Wallace Poirier

Wallace (Johnny) Poirier of 429 Albany, Ore. 97321, passed suddenly from an apparent attack Friday evening, June at his home.

The family had been home just days from a trip to South Dako-where they attended the wedding of their son Harlan at Yankton, and visited friends in Groton and Hecla.

Funeral services and burial were held Monday.

Poirier was a native of Turkey, S.D., and at one time operated a cleaning establishment here on Main Street in the building north of the Bob Johnson Agency.