

October 14, 1965

Mrs. Anton ^{TENA}Prestwick

Mrs. Anton (Tena) Prestwick, 78, of 22 10th Ave. S.E., Aberdeen died at St. Luke's Hospital, Wednesday evening.

Services were held at 2 p. m., Monday, Oct. 11th at Bethlehem Lutheran Church with Pastor O. M. Simundson officiating. Burial was in the Union Cemetery at Groton.

Don Levsen was soloist with Mrs. Levsen, organist.

Casketbearers were Bert Gibbs, M. W. Saylor, Gust Carlson, Clarence Henderson, Buell Luce and I. L. Fenson.

Mrs. Prestwick was born Jan. 17, 1887 at Columbus, Neb., and moved with her family to the Hecla area. Later they moved to Claremont, where she married Axel Swenson on April 23, 1905. They made their home in Claremont. Mr. Swenson died in 1934 and in 1935 she moved to Aberdeen, where she was employed as a saleslady for a number of years. She was married to Anton Prestwick on May 29, 1943.

She was a member of Bethlehem Lutheran church, the Royal Neighbor Lodge and the Yelduz Shrine Auxiliary.

Survivors include her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Lloyd (Lois) Schinkel, Groton and Mrs. Clifford (Lucille) Wicklund, Milwaukee, Wis.; one step-daughter, Mrs. Ruth Krum, Montevideo, Minn.; four brothers and three sisters.