

REDMOND PASSES AWAY

IN DEATH OF POPULAR
NG LADY BRINGS GRIEF
ENTIRE COMMUNITY

5-30-1918

n community was grief strickday afternoon when word was about that Mrs. Newell A. d had passed away at the her sister, Mrs. R. W. Brad-fter a short illness of about s' duration.

a week ago she was seen about nds with the pleasant smile py greeting which was always acteristic of her. It was this lispotion of which she was d which endeared her to s with whom she became acl. Her life's journey was with kindness and cheer which linger in the memory of her iends.

Bowles was born February at Groton, South Dakota. at the first twenty years of on the Bowles farm a few uthwest of town, and received y education at the country ear that place. Later she at-chool at Brockings for a short After leaving the farm she me time clerking for Miller o., Brooberg Merc. Co., and w & Archer, and while serv-his capacity she made many nds who will long remember