

August 6, 1970

Elmon D. Roth

Services for Elmon D. Roth, 75, rural Andover, were at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, August 1, at the United Methodist Church in Andover with the Rev. James Vos officiating.

Mr. Roth died at Day County Hospital Wednesday, July 29.

Pall bearers were Calvin Hayenga, Richard Marske, Dewey Roth Jr., Arnold Anderson, Wesley McKittrick and Ervin Emmen.

Music was provided by Mrs. Richard Marske and Mrs. James Vos, singing "Have Thine Own Way Lord", accompanied by Miss Marjorie Hayenga. Susan, Marcia and DeAnne Marske sang, "How Great Thou Art", accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Richard Marske.

Mr. Roth was born Feb. 2, 1895, and had been a lifelong resident of the Andover community. He was a retired farmer. He married Harmka Hayenga at Groton Feb. 4, 1930.

Surviving are his widow; two sons, Bill of Aberdeen and Gene of Andover; and twin daughters, Mrs. Percival (Murtis) Monson, Webster, and Mrs. Lyle (Mavis) Wik, Webster; and 10 grandchildren.

Six brothers and three sisters preceded Mr. Roth in death.