MRS. L. A. SANDERSON

Mrs. L. A. Sanderson passed away at her home in Verdon on Wednesday morning, Feb. 24, following an illness of several years' duration. Her death was caused dropsy, which resulted in heart failure.

Etha M. Crippen was born July 2, 1869, at Marcellon, Columbia county, Wisconsin. She was united in marriage on October 23, 1891, to Luman A. Sanderson, at Lodi, Wis. In 1908 they moved from their farm at Lodi to Harrisburg, S. D., where they resided for nine years. In 1913 they came to Verdon.

Mrs. Sanderson leaves to mourn her loss her sorrowing husband, five children and fourteen grand children, besides a number of other relatives. The children are James Chester, Samuel Ivan, William Earl, Ethan Allen and Grace Lola. Floyd Elbert died in infancy.

She united with the Methodist church at Harrisburg in 1908, and was also a member of the Methodist church in Groton, and has always been a faithful church member and a kind and loving mother.

Funeral services were held at the Christian church at Verdon, Saturday, conducted by Rev. Benson. Mrs. J. Williams and Mrs. S. H. Chilton sang several appropriate duets. Interment was made in the Groton cemetery.
