

January 5, 1983

Wayne Sanderson

Funeral services for Wayne L. Sanderson, 53, were Monday morning, Jan. 3, at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church.

He died Saturday, Jan. 1, at his home near Groton of an apparent heart attack.

The Rev. Leonard Fox and the Rev. Marvin McPhee officiated and burial was in the Groton Catholic Cemetery under the direction of the Paetznick-Garness Funeral Home.

Active casketbearers were Joseph Sanderson, New Hope, Minn.; Michael Sanderson and Robert Sanderson, both of Marshall, Minn.; Douglas Sauer and Donald Sauer, both of Sioux Falls; and James Donovan, Groton. Honorary casketbearers were Donald Walter, Emery Sippel, Orville Schaller, Ralph Breitreutz, Robert Wehde, Robert Jensen, Glenn Cooper and Gerald Rix, all of Groton.

Mrs. Janet Harder was the organist and Manley Green, the soloist who sang "Good Night and Good Morning" and "Abide With Me". Ushers were Tony Goldade, Dale McGannon and Gene Abeln.

Wayne L. Sanderson was born May 6, 1929, at Groton and was married here September 8, 1948, to Patricia Rix. He lived in the Groton area all of his life and was a member of St. John the Baptist Catholic Church.

Survivors include his widow; four daughters, Mrs. Emmet (Karen) Bakke, Marshall, Minn.; and Mrs. Larry (Kathy) Harry; Mrs. Jerry (Peggy) Locke, and Patti Sanderson, all of Groton; one brother, Delbert, Marshall, Minn.; two sisters, Mrs. Lester (Elsie) Emery, Groton; and Mrs. Michael (Belva) Sauer, Aberdeen; seven grandchildren and his step-father, Clarence Von Wald, Groton.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother.