Nelda Santman

Funeral services were held on Thursday, Sept. 17, at 2 p.m. for Nelda Santman, 57, Santa Rosa, Calif., who died Tuesday at a local hospital in Santa Rosa following a short illness.

Nelda Santman, a native of South Dakota, was the daughter of Otis and Elizabeth Gilborne, former owners and managers of the Yellowstone Cafe in Groton. She came to California and Sonoma County 25 years ago and was self employed as a public accountant. Her last home was at 804 College Ave., Santa Rosa.

Survivors include her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gilborne, and a sister and niece, Ruth and Linda Grandberg, all of Santa Rosa.

The Rev. Alexander Bryants of First United Methodist Church officiated. Interment was at Santa Rosa Memorial Park.
