

January 1, 1970

Mrs. Joseph Scales

Services for Mrs. Joseph (Jerusha) Scales, 78, will be held at 11 a. m., Wednesday, Dec. 31, at the United Methodist Church in Claremont. She died Thursday at her home in Vancouver, Wash.

The Rev. Preston Brown officiated and burial was in Sunset Memorial Gardens, near Aberdeen.

Ronald Odland, soloist was accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Pierson, organist.

Pall bearers were Emery Stohr, Lowell Beck, Wesley Pierson, Robert Miller, Orville Nereim and Carl Davidson.

Mrs. Scales was born June 24, 1891, in West Plain, Mo., and was married Jan. 14, 1915, in Pittsburg, Kan. She came to Claremont in 1920 and lived in Aberdeen from 1941 to 1945 when she moved to Minneapolis. She moved to Vancouver four years ago.

Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. Fred (Marie) Maxwell, Vancouver; Mrs. Lloyd (Mildred) Sanderson, Claremont; Mrs. Joe (Norma) Galiti, Wayzata, Minn.; Mrs. Harvey (Eva) Hansen, Oklahoma City, Okla.; and Mrs. Robert (Dorla) Long, Phoenix, Ariz.; one son, Elmer, Wasco, Calif.; 21 grandchildren and four great grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. Ida Kennedy, Pittsburg.

She was preceded in death by her husband, two brothers and three sisters.