Edwina Schlichting

Edwina Schlichting was born in West Hanson Township, Groton. The daughter of Fred Schlichting and his wife, Katherine, nee Radke.

Edwina was baptized and confirmed at Saint John Lutheran Church in Groton, and she attended parochial school there.

Edwina spent her young years in Groton and continued on there, taking care of her father until he died. Then she and her sister, Hattie, moved to Seattle in 1943. Soon after their arrival they joined Trinity Lutheran Church, where both have been members.

The last 10 years have not been easy for Edwina and Hattie, since Edwina gradually became blind and in recent years has been confined to a wheel chair as well.

Edwina is survived by two sisters, Hattie Schlichting and Amanda Dalgleish, by two nieces, Myrtis Reed and June Sentine, and nephew, Grenfall Dalgeish, and their spouses and children and other relatives.
