

November 15, 2010

The Life of Cameron Lee Siders

- Memorial service for Cameron Lee Siders, 50, of Aberdeen was held Friday, November 12, 2010 at Carlsen Funeral Home and Crematory, Aberdeen. The Rev. Tanya Rist will officiate.
- Inurnment will be in Black Hills National Cemetery near Sturgis.
- He died November 1, 2010 at his home.
- Cameron Lee Siders was born February 10, 1960 at Long Beach, Calif. He grew up on the West Coast between California and Washington. He graduated from high school and entered the United States Ma rine Corps. He was stationed at Twenty-nine Palms, CA, Beirut, Lebanon and Grenada. After serving six years, he was honorably discharged. He worked in Manhattan, Kansas in a steel pipe plant, later moving to Houston, Texas where he did mechanical work.

- He was united in marriage to Jolene Weismantel on December 19, 1987 at Houston, TX. They made their home in Houston for ten years. Cameron was driving over the road truck. In 2003, he moved to Aberdeen when his health began to fail.
- Cameron was active in Alcoholic Anonymous in Texas and in Aberdeen at the Yellow House. He had been clean and sober for 20 years. When his health allowed it, he would enjoy a game of golf.
- He was a life member of Veterans of Foreign War and Veteran related activities.
- Survivors include his daughter, Cassie (Jason McCorkle) Siders of Aberdeen, his ex-wife, Jolene Siders of Aberdeen, one brother, Dale Siders, one sister, Deb Siders and one granddaughter, Ada McCorkle.