

Roxann Janelle Sieh

Roxann Janelle Sieh, 47, went home to glory to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on October 9, 2003. Roxann died peacefully at her earthly home after an extended illness. She was born April 3, 1956 in Hankinson, ND to Arnold and Evelyn Willprecht. She grew up in Lidgerwood, ND. She has resided in Everett since 1979 where she and her husband have operated United Plumbing. Her boys have been her life. Other loves have been Starbucks, Costco, and South Everett Little League. She recently graduated, cum laude, from Northwest College in Kirkland with a BA in organizational management.

Roxann is survived by her husband, Bill; her four boys, Tristyn Duerr, Brock Duerr, Brandon Sieh and Jordan Sieh, and her sister Karen (Don) Sterzinger. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Special thanks to UW Hospital and staff and Dr. Spencer; Providence Hospice of Snohomish county and Maribeth; "the girls"; and the morning pray group.

Services are being held at Groton Christian & Missionary Alliance Church, 706 N. Main, Groton, SD on Saturday, October 18th at 2:00 pm. Pastor Marty Valder of Everett, WA will preside over the service.

Memorials may be given to the University of Washington Cancer Program Support Fund, c/o University of Washington Medicine, P.O. Box 358220, Seattle, WA 98195.

Arrangements by Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel.

October 7, 2003

Obituary for Roxann Janelle Sieh

- Roxann Janelle Sieh, 47, died on October 9, 2003. Roxann died peacefully at her home after an extended illness. She was born April 3, 1956 in Hankinson, ND to Arnold and Evelyn Willprecht. She grew up in Lidgerwood, ND. She has resided in Everett since 1979 where she and her husband have operated United Plumbing. Her boys have been her life. Other loves have been Starbucks, Costco, and South Everett Little League. She recently graduated, cum laude, from Northwest College in Kirkland with a BA in organizational management.
- Roxann is survived by her husband, Bill; her four boys, Tristyn Duerr, Brock Duerr, Brandon Sieh and Jordan Sieh, and her sister Karen (Don) Sterzinger. She was preceded in death by her parents.
- Services are being held at Groton Christian & Missionary Alliance Church, 706 N. Main, Groton, SD on Saturday, October 18th at 2:00 pm. Pastor Marty Valder of Everett, WA will preside over the service.
- Memorials may be given to the University of Washington Cancer Program Support Fund, c/o University of Washington Medicine, P.O. Box 358220, Seattle, WA 98195.
- Arrangements by Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel.