

Sombke operated Ferney Corner

2-10-88

Pearl Inglis Sombke, along her husband, Edward Sombke, owned and operated the Ferney Corner, a service station and grocery store for many years.

Sombke was born at Verdon on January 31, 1910 to William and Inga Marie Swanson Inglis. She married Edward Sombke on April 8, 1928 in West Hanson. They lived in Ferney until 1983 when they both entered the Aberdeen Nursing Center in Aberdeen. She was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Ferney.

Rites held

Survivors include her husband, Edward; three sons, Lawrence, Tacoma, Wash.; Gerald, Freeborn, Minn.; and Dennis, Spokane, Wash.; one daughter, Mrs. Gene (Marlene) Zoellner, Littleton, Colo.; two brothers, Keith Inglis, Groton; Lovald Inglis, Sioux Falls; four sisters, Mrs. Kerry Geffre, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Ann Rist, Northfield, Minn.; Mrs. Marie Lange, Pequet Lakes, Minn.; and Mrs. Emma Pillen, Rapid City; 14 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, one infant son, two brothers, one sister, two great grandchildren.

Sombke died at the Aberdeen Nursing Center on February 2, 1988. The funeral was February 5, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Ferney with the Rev. Dan Elkins officiating.

Burial was in the Ferney Cemetery under the direction of Paetznick-Gar-ness Funeral Chapel.

Casketbearers were all grandchildren. They were Robin Sombke, Tim Zoellner, Bob Sombke, Karen Sombke, Debra Wade, and Kelli Sombke.

The organist was Mrs. Carol Sombke. The church choir sang, "I Know Who Holds Tomorrow" and "Asleep In Jesus". The congregation sang, "Just As I Am".