Mrs. Dale Sour

Memorial services for Janet Bowles Sour were held Monday, May 17, at 2 p.m., at the United Methodist Church in Groton. The Rev. John Maines officiated. Mrs. Gene Cassels was the organist. Rodney Barnes sang "In the Garden" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere". The congregation sang "Praise to The Lord, The Almighty".

Mrs. Sour died Wednesday, May 5, at New Smyrna Beach, Fla.

Janet Bowles was the eldest daughter of Fred and Edythe Bowles. She was born in Groton on April 20, 1912. Following her attendance at Groton Schools she graduated with the Class of 1930 and then attended college at Dakota Wesleyan and graduated from there in 1934. She taught for two years before her marriage to Dale Sour of Hayti in 1936.

Her activities in the community were wide spread. She held membership in the United Methodist Church, Chapter AC of the PEO Sisterhood, Chapter 83 of the Order of Eastern Star and the Merifu Club. Friends will remember her as a most hospitable hostess, interested in people of all ages.

She is survived by her husband, Dale; one daughter, Mrs. Jim (Joan) Rountree and three grandchildren, all of Groton; one sister, Virginia Tjomsland, Vancouver, Wash.; two brothers, Donald of Aberdeen and Lynn of Salem, Ore.

She was preceded in death by her parents.
