

O. Stang

Mrs. Oscar (Alice) Hersey, Wis., were held Sept. 13, at First Lutheran at Hersey, and Thursday, at Emmanuel Lutheran at Groton. The Rev. Jonathan officiated and burial was at Union Cemetery.

Mr. Alberts served as officiant and accompanied Rodney Belmont, who sang "How Firm a Foundation" and "Precious My Hand."

Survivors were Dana Craig, Kraft, Robert Thompson; Donald Simonson, Turton; and Kermit

He died September 9 at Groton. He was a former Groton born July 30, 1893, at Groton. She married Oliver Stang July 15, 1913, at Aberdeen. She married Donald Stang in 1953. She married August 25, 1957.

Survivors include her second son, Orville Simonson Christi, Tex.; two daughters, Mrs. Phyllis Gulbrandsen Christi, Tex., and Mrs. (Jane) Totzke, Groton; two sons, Virgil Stang of Woodville and Donald Stang, Clinchfield; three stepdaughters, Mrs. (Lillian) DeWitt of Glenwood, Mrs. Helen Ross of Groton, and Mrs. Dorothy Stang of Claire, Wis.; three grandsons, Martin and Roy Stang, and Mrs. Gertrude Stang; one great-grandson, Rachel Brown; two great-grandchildren and one great-grandchild.