

Frieda Stange

The funeral for Frieda Stange, 96, of Groton was held April 7 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Groton with the Rev. Craig Grams officiating. Burial followed in Sunset Memorial Gardens in Aberdeen with Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel of Groton in charge of arrangements.

She died Sunday, April 4, 1999 at her home in Groton.

Frieda Marie Schmidt was born July 14, 1902 to Fred and Hulda (Quetschke) Schmidt on a farm near Groton. She grew up on the family farm and attended rural elementary school. She married Herman Stange on November 8, 1923. They made their home on a farm east of Stratford. They moved to Groton in 1967. He died January 31, 1968. She continued to live in Groton.

She was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Groton.

She enjoyed crocheting and baking.

Survivors include one son, Virgil Stange of Tulsa, Okla.; one daughter, Marilyn (Val) Cutler of Groton; six grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Herman Stange; six sisters, Ida Pigors, Laura Wagner Olson, Louise Peterson, Ella Anderson, Meta Pigors Badten and Anna Dunker; and three brothers, Walter Schmidt, Fred Schmidt and Leonard Schmidt.

Casketbearers were Larry Cutler, Terry Cutler, Jeff Spomer, Kevin Wegehaupt, Gary Cutler and Roger Krueger.

Ushers were Ben Schaller and Bill Schuelke.

Alvera Neuman was the organist and the Rev. Bill Duncan was the soloist.

