

August 25, 1910

SUDDEN DEATH

Hazel Thompson, daughter of John Thompson and his wife Lizzie Thompson was born near Groton, Feb. 26th, 1901, in Gem Township and died Sunday, Aug. 21st, 1910 at about 11:00 p. m. Her death was caused by ptomaine poisoning. She leaves to mourn her early death, her parents, two brothers, three sisters and many relatives and friends. Hazel was a quiet obedient child who endeared herself to all who knew her.

Her sudden and early death is a severe blow to the family. May the infinite God in mercy comfort them and grant them a blessed reunion in heaven.

Funeral services were conducted at the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, Rev. C. F. Strutz officiating in the absence of the pastor. X