

March 13, 1969

Mrs. George Traphagen

Services for Mrs. George (Helen) Traphagen, 78, were held at 2 p. m., Tuesday, March 11, in the Methodist Church in Claremont. She died Saturday at the Day County Hospital in Webster.

The Rev. Preston Brown officiated and burial was in the Britton Cemetery.

Mrs. Traphagen was born May 29, 1890, in Hume, N. Y., and came to South Dakota as a child. She was graduated from Britton High School in 1909, and lived there until her marriage Dec. 25, 1911, at Creswell, Ore. The couple lived in Oregon until 1915 when they moved to Igloo. She had been a resident of Claremont for the last 25 years.

Survivors include her husband, four sons, Robert and Kenneth, both of Aberdeen; Glenn, San Francisco, Calif.; and Brian, Worthington, Minn.; four daughters, Mrs. Russell (Jessie) Henry and Mrs. Carl Wayne, both of Oak Park, Ill.; Mrs. John (Dorothy) McLaughlin, Britton; and Mrs. Jas. (Ruth) Gleeson, Mountain View, Calif.; 26 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.