

Jodean Trudy, 77

Jodean Ann Trudy, 77, Aberdeen, died Thursday, Feb. 3, 2011 at Aberdeen Health and Rehab, Aberdeen.

A celebration of life for Jodean was Wednesday, Feb. 9, 2011 at Spitzer-Miller Funeral Home, Aberdeen, with Pastor Deb Grismer officiating. Spitzer-Miller Funeral Home, Aberdeen, was in charge of arrangements.

Jodean Ann Meister was born March 6, 1933 in Aberdeen, to Erwin and Georgia (Gibbs) Meister. She was baptized and confirmed at St. John's Lutheran Church, Groton. She graduated from Groton High School. After high school, she worked in Sioux Falls, for a short time.

Jodean was united in marriage to Maynard Trudy, November 2, 1956. Together, they made their home on a farm near Brentford, SD, where they raised four children. In 1983, Jodean began working in the deli at Kessler's, Aberdeen, and continued to work there for 27 years.

Jodean will always be remembered for having fresh bread, cookies and cake for anyone who visited her home. She loved to travel with her family and friends, and she especially enjoyed bus trips to Branson, Mo. She was an avid bingo player, playing weekly until ill health prevented her from doing so.

Grateful for having shared her life are her husband of 54 years, Maynard Trudy, Aberdeen; four children, Lorna (John) Stonebarger, Watertown, SD; Marsha Frericks, Rapid City, SD; Luie (Desiree) Trudy, Ridgecrest, Calif., and Mark Trudy, Aberdeen; five grandchildren, Andrea (Jon) Grann, Jared Frericks and special friend Terri, Marisa (David) Meidinger, Adam Stonebarger and Kristina Trudy; four step grandchildren, five great grandchildren; seven step great grandchildren, and eight siblings, Burnice Ageton, Mervyn Meister, Ila Jesme, Charles Meister, Dennis Meister, Maxine Haywood, Robert Meister and Terry Meister

She was preceded in death by her parents, four brothers, and two sisters.
