

September 28, 1899

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Riper suffered the loss of their infant child Monday morning. The little one was taken away suddenly, having fallen asleep Sunday afternoon and dying sometime during the night. The remains were buried in Union cemetery Tuesday afternoon.