

✓ CARL VOIGT 12-12-19

Carl Voigt, a prominent farmer living near James, died suddenly Sunday evening, following an attack of acute indigestion.

Deceased was born in Wisconsin sixty-six years ago and for the past thirty-six years had made his home in South Dakota.

Surviving him are three brothers, Fred Voigt, of Lebanon, S. D.; S. N. Voigt, of Aberdeen and J. T. Voigt, of Seattle, and three sisters, Mrs. Henry Lehmann, of Junius, S. D., Mrs. Henry Heberer, of Groton, and E. L. Voigt, of Aberdeen.

Funeral services will be held today at 1:00 o'clock from the house. Then to the Lutheran church at James and burial will be made at the Groton Union cemetery, Rev. F. E. Witke officiating.