

August 5, 1963

Mrs. Pearl Wigdahl

Services for Mrs. Pearl Wigdahl, 75, Britton, were held at the Paetznick Funeral Home in Groton at 2 p. m., Saturday. The Revs. Orland Sloat, Britton and Preston Brown, Claremont officiated. Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Morton Erickson.

Burial was in the Groton cemetery. Pall bearers were Dean, Dale, Gary, Kay, Keith, Lyle, Val, and Wayne Cutler.

Mrs. Wigdahl died at her home in Britton Tuesday.

She was born in Claremont on April 15, 1888. Before her marriage to Joseph Wigdahl in Aberdeen in August of 1912, she taught school in Brown, Marshall and Corson counties. She was a resident of the Claremont area for most of her life. She homesteaded in Corson county, where she lived for four years.

She attended Methodist churches in the Britton area.

Survivors are her husband; one son, William, Langford; two daughters, Mrs. Robert (Gertrude) Schuller, Amherst, and Winifred Wigdahl Tobin, Seattle, Wash.; nine grandchildren; four brothers, Homer, Howard and Frank Cutler, all of Claremont and Ben Cutler, Cayuga, N. D.; and two sisters, Mr. Vance (Imogene) Weaver, Buffalo, Minn., and Mrs. D. J. (Edna) Saunders, Houston, Texas.

One sister preceded her in death.