Mrs. Dobberpuhl

Mrs. Adolph (Dollie) Dobberpuhl, 74, long time Stratford resident, died Sunday morning, Sept. 17, at St. Luke's Hospital in Aberdeen.

Services were held at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 19, at the First Presbyterian Church of Stratford with the Rev. Robert Carey of Groton, officiating. Burial was in the Oakwood Cemetery at West Rondell.

David Sueltz, soloist, sang "Sweet Hour of Prayer" and "How Great Thou Art," accompanied by Ann Erdmann, organist.

Pallbearers were Richard Francoli, Dennis Rossow, Gordon Gerharter, Clarence McNeil, Duane Kramer and Kenneth Jark. Ushers were Duane Jark, Marvin Rossow, Robert Hanson and Randy Bartz.

Dollie Collom was born March 28, 1898, at Sandusky, Ohio. She came to the Stratford community as a small child and spent her life there. She married Adolph Dobberpuhl in 1915. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, U.P.W., Rondell Circle and Mercy Rebekah Lodge.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Dayle (Lola) Luedeke and two grandchildren, all of Stratford.

Her husband, one son and two sisters preceded her in death.
