

January 31, 1963

Mrs. Nellie Dokter

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Nellie Marie Dokter at the Jones & Jones Colonial Chapel in Wenatchee, Wash., on Friday, Jan. 4, at 4:00 p. m. The Rev. G. Richard Tuttle was officiated. Mrs. Wm. Rathman was organist. Concluding services and interment was at Missoula, Mont., cemetery on Monday, Jan. 7 at 11:00 a. m.

Nellie Marie Raynes was born Aug. 27, 1894, to Alfred and Bessie Raynes at Andover. She attended the Andover school and graduated in 1914 from the high school. Marie joined the Andover Methodist church and was very active as organist, Sunday school teacher and Epworth League member. She taught a rural school one year and then taught in the Andover school until 1919 when she married Garrett Dokter. They moved onto a farm east of town and in 1921 to Missoula, Mont., where Mr. Dokter, passed away in 1941. To this union a son, Darold and a daughter, Rosemary was born. Mrs. Dokter and children moved to Tacoma, Wash., after his death. She again taught school, in Oregon and California and on retiring she moved to Wenatchee, to be close to her sisters.

This past year, she was in poor health and passed away on Jan. 1, 1963. She leaves her son, Darold Dean Dokter, Las Vegas, Nev., and daughter, Mrs. Rosemary Hanneback, Pettsfield, Mass.; two brothers, Dr. Rex Raynes, Seattle, Wash., and Harry Raynes, Andover; two sisters, Mrs. Glenn (Marjorie) Hoffman and Mrs. Wm. (Kathleen) Scott, both of Wenatchee, Wash., four grandchildren, several nephews and nieces.