Mrs. Selma Ebert

Mrs. Selma (Sally) Ebert, Beaver Dam, Wis., passed away at the Lutheran Hospital there early Friday morning, July 16, following failing health for the past year and one-half.

Mrs. Ebert made her home here for a time with her daughter, Mrs. Orville Schaller and family before returning to Beaver Dam recently.

Funeral services were held on Monday, July 19, at 2:00 p. m., at the First Evangelical Lutheran Church. Rev. John Mason officiated and burial was in Highland Memory Gardens, Beaver Dam.

The late Mrs. Ebert was born on June 2, 1904, at Groton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Breitkreutz. She lived in Groton until 18 years old and since then the most of her life in Beaver Dam. On March 31, 1923, she was married to Andrew F. Ebert.

Surviving are her husband; four sons, Gerald of Oshkosh, Ronald of West Bend, and Wayne and Dennis Ebert, both of Beaver Dam; one daughter. Mrs. Orville (Joyce) Schaller, Groton.
