

January 7, 1971

Amelia Hilbert

Services for Amelia Ann Hilbert, who died Tuesday, Dec. 29 at St. Mary's Hospital were held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 2 at the Johnson Home with the Rev. Harold J. Cresbard and the Rev. J. Marty of Aberdeen officiating.

Burial was in the Bath cemetery.

Paul Holmes was soloist and Charles Holmes was organist.

Bearers were Vance Miller, Charles Little, Eldon Beckler, Ronald Hard, Neal Cornell and Herbert.

Amelia Hilbert was born Oct. 31, 1883 in Waunakee, Wis., and came to Dakota with her family the following year. She lived at Bath until 1903, when she came to Aberdeen to live at Mother Joseph Manor. She attended school in Bath Township and Redfield. She was a member of the Bath United Methodist Church.

Amelia Hilbert is survived by seven children. Two brothers, George and a sister, Mary, predeceased her in death.